As we review 2010, we are humbled by the favor God has shown us for 29 years, and we are pleased to report, "The Miracle Continues." Following the year when we proactively addressed the economic downturn with salary freezes, layoffs, and program scrutiny, we served 142 families in 2010 without cutting programs or services. Amid uncertainty, struggle and loss, and the economy impacting our donors and donations, we closed the year with our annual Christmas meal and Nativity story - and Hope arrived. Our Lady's Inn was poised to begin our 'second story.' Although difficult financial times would not indicate program expansion, God's timing was perfect to expand the Twice Blessed Resale Shop after Our Lady's Inn won an entrepreneurial competition through Washington University's Skandalaris Competition. Twice Blessed not only utilizes our generous donations, but also provides work experience for our clients and volunteer opportunities for our supporters. "Lunch and Learn" events, held at the beautiful wineries near our location in Defiance, have brought to us many new friends who have enriched our programs, provided meals, equipment, training skills and countless other blessings. We also conquered the challenge of a non-working septic field through the sacrificial time and talent of Board member Walt Schuster and the God-send of special tax monies from St. Charles County. Finally, the professional and devoted staff of Our Lady's Inn were blessed to witness former clients return with intact families, pursuing degrees, sending their children off to college, and leading productive, faith-filled lives. The mission of Our Lady's Inn must continue; our story is still unfolding. Our 30th Anniversary began in January, 2011 and we are grateful to our faithful benefactors, whose generous support has written our history. We thank God for each of you, and ask His guidance to engage a new generation in our mission. Together, we will write new stories of hope and help; the 'second stories' of the miracle of life that is Our Lady's Inn.

Gratefully yours,
Jean Flanagan, President, Board of Directors
